PANAMÁ - A TROPICAL FANTASY

Panamá, a welcoming paradise with a tropical climate, invites you to discover the many faces of the country on this wonderful tour throughout the modern, the historical, the cultural and the exotic. The tour begins in Panamá City, where we overnight in one of the many modern hotels in the city. We visit the Miraflores Locks, where you discover the Canal operation and admire the passing through of ships. We tour through the colonial city (or Casco Antiguo), a panoramic visit of the modern city of Panamá and the coastal strip (Cinta Costera) lets us discover the the monument to Vasco Núñez de Balboa, the discoverer of the South Sea, enjoy magnificent views of the city from the Amador Causeway. Up next on our itinerary is the flight to Bocas Del Toro, with its indescribable and overwhelming natural beauty, in addition to a fascinating and harmonic mix of ethnicities and cultures. The archipelago of Bocas Del Toro is a unique place, where lush vegetation, biodiversity, wonderful beaches and ethnic customs combine into a tropical fantasy. Back in Panamá City, the tour continues to the area of Playa Blanca, on the Pacific Coast.

Enjoy magnificent views of the city from the Amador Causeway. We visit the community of Emberá Indians, originating from the mountainous region of the Darién province. We experience the history and culture of the indigenous culture, through narrative, traditional dance and craftsmanship like baskets woven from the natural fibres of the chungá, maquenque and naguala palm trees, as well as figures carved in cocobolo wood and tagua (better known as vegetable ivory). No far from Colon, Isla Grande is located in a peaceful and protected bay, only 3 hours from Panama City - a picturesque haven of lush vegetation, palm trees and white sand beaches, surrounded by a coral reef rich in marine life and ideal for the amateur diver. The name of Isla Grande, or The Big Island, suggests that this is one of the largest islands along the Colon coastline, the tour continues to the area of Playa Blanca, on the Pacific Coast.
